The Gwynns Falls Trail is a 13-mile linear greenway trail connecting over 20 miles of green infrastructure along the Major Boulevard Corridor between the city of Baltimore and the hamlets of Parkville and Randallstown in the north. The Trail provides access to and connects many of Baltimore City’s parks, recreation areas, and historic landmarks, and is the perfect place to enjoy the outdoors. The Trail offers opportunities to see birds, bats, deer, fox, skunks, snapping turtles, and other wildlife. The Trail is a great place to see the fall colors of the leaves and enjoy the natural beauty of the area. The Trail is open to all ages and abilities and is a great way to explore the city’s natural beauty. The Trail is located in the heart of downtown Baltimore and is easily accessible from many different areas. The Trail is open to all ages and abilities and is a great way to explore the city’s natural beauty. The Trail is located in the heart of downtown Baltimore and is easily accessible from many different areas. The Trail is open to all ages and abilities and is a great way to explore the city’s natural beauty.