

For Immediate Release: January 29, 2015

Emily Ranson
Bike Maryland
443-562-2832
emily@bikemd.org

Bike Maryland 2015 Symposium

Tuesday, March 17, 9:00 am.

WHO: Bike Maryland and affiliated organizations and general cycling community
WHEN: Tuesday, March 17, 9:00 am to 6:00 pm
WHERE: Miller Senate Office Building, 11 Bladen Street, Annapolis, MD
WHAT: Bike Maryland's annual symposium. Bicyclists from across the state will gather in Annapolis to advocate for bike-related legislation, learn from experts in the field, and share accomplishments and knowledge from across the state. The morning programming focuses on bike-specific legislation and legislator education while the afternoon programming features a broader range of speakers that include bicycle improvements, mountain biking, and recent achievements across the state. The day will end in a social happy hour. All are welcome and the event is free.

Agenda:

9:00 am - Social Hour with Coffee and Light Refreshments
10:00 am - Nate Evans: Welcome
10:10 am - Vinnie DeMarco: Keynote
10:40 am - Paul Cavalleri: How NOT to lobby
11:15 am - Emily Ranson: Update on bike-specific legislation, talking points
11:30 am - Meet with your legislators
1:00 pm - Joe Lynagh: Welcome Back
1:05 pm - Nate Evans: Guide to Getting Bike Stuff Done
1:35 pm - Bill Schultheiss: 'Burbs Bike Improvements/Developer's Review
1:50 pm - Mountain Biking Panel
2:30 pm - Celebrating Achievements Across the State
2:45 pm - Nate Evans: Closing remarks
3:00 pm - Adjourn
4:00 pm - Happy Hour Hosted by Bike Maryland, thanks to Brewer's Art

For more information and registration please see: <https://www.bikemaryland.org/events/bikemaryland-symposium/>